- (a)(1) On September 24, 2010, Craig C. Bram resigned his position as a director of the Registrant. At the time of his resignation, Mr. Bram was serving as a member of the Audit, Compensation and Long-Term Incentive and Nominating/Corporate Governance Committees. As he expressed in the email to the Board of Directors in which he tendered his resignation, the Board understands that the reason for Mr. Bram's resignation is his belief that his opinions concerning the strategic direction of the Registrant differ from those of the other Board members.
- (2) Attached as Exhibit 17 is a copy of the email to the Board of Directors in which Mr. Bram tendered his resignation and set forth his reasons for resignation.
- (3) The Registrant has provided Mr. Bram with a copy of this Form 8-K, and advised him of his opportunity to furnish the Registrant as promptly as possible with a letter stating whether he agrees with the statements made in this Form 8-K, and, if not, stating the respects in which he does not agree. The Registrant will file any letter received by Mr. Bram as an exhibit by an amendment to this Form 8-K pursuant to the requirements of Item 5.02(a)(3).

forward. I have proceeds in nev Synalloy, I have	After many discussions with the Board of Directors concerning the strategic direction of the company, it is clear that we continue to disagree on the best approach going forward. I have recommended two possible strategies: 1.) Build a diversified industrial company through the sale of Brismet Pipe and the reinvestment of those proceeds in new acquisitions; or 2.) the sale of the entire company. While I believe that either of these strategies allows shareholders to maximize their investment in Synalloy, I have not been able to convince my fellow Board members. At this point, I think it is counterproductive for me to remain on the Board of Directors. Please accept my resignation from the Board, effective immediately.
